

As an active member of the amateur radio community, I ask that you deny the request by SAVI Industries to expand their services in the 70cm Amateur frequencies. The 70cm band is one of the most active and crowded of the amateur bands. The added interference that SAVI is proposing will only lead to numerous interference problems.

Preserve the limited frequency privileges for amateur operators.

Deerik Shryock, KK7WE